Interchangeable Jewelry by Mag Tagz Review + Giveaway

Much like a lot of little girls, my daughter Cordelia is a big fan of jewelry. Additionally she loves trading like objects for a day or two with a couple of her closest pals. She frequently brings home a swapped pencil, pen, or bouncy ball for the evening, only to return home the next day with a different one or her original item.

With this in mind, I had a feeling she was going to be a big fan of Mag-tagz, a mom-invented interchangeable jewelry line. Here's how Mag Tagz work: You start off with a Mag-Tagz necklace base and then you simply magnetically stick one of your round tagz of your choice to the base. The tagz come in a plethora of quite affordably priced designs and the magnet base makes them perfect for simple swapping with a friend.

Cooler still, Mag Tagz frequently holds design contests where the winning design is made into a limited edition design complete with the winner's name on the back. Entries for the latest round are currently being accepted now thru May 15h. Further details on this design contest open to the 14 and under crowd are available here. Cordelia is working hard on her own submission.

Additionally, Mag Tagz owner's can play the "Tag, You're It!" game. Players get started by entering the unique code found on the back of any tag, to get a clue. The goal is to collect four clues and figure out what the clues have in common. Players are encouraged to trade tagz or information with friends to learn more clues. Once they know the answer, they can submit it online and be entered to win amazing prizes like a Nintendo Wii. As added incentive to play, everybody who enters to win receives a special-edition tag just for participating.

Mag-tagz items are available for purchase online at www.mag-tagz.com and at select specialty stores. You can utilize [Promo Code: blogger20] for 20% off a purchase of $20 or more.

If you think think these are as cute an idea as I do, you can even enter to win a Mag Tagz necklace and your choice of one of the two limited edition Tagz designed by the winner's of the last Mag Tagz contest.
